

SWARTBERG

COUNTRY MANOR

FACT SHEET

Nestled on the farm Voorbedacht at the foot of the Swartberg Mountains (International listed heritage site) with a panoramic view of the world renowned Swartberg Pass.

Both original farm houses have been converted in luxury accommodation. The historical house (dated 1864) features 5 en-suite guest rooms with "brooky-lace" finishes and Oregon Pine floors and Ceilings. The Main house offers 11 en-suite guest rooms emanating a warm "earthy" ambiance and warm natural wood and slate finishes. Peace, Tranquil and Serenity are three units each consisting of three en-suite rooms. These units are built to resemble the traditional Karoo Style.

The Guest house offers convenient access to the following landmarks: Cano Caves, Swartberg Pass, Cango Ostrich Farm and the Garden Route.
